Huns Must Pay Huge Indemnity For Damages

Compensation For Destruction of Cities and Ships Demanded
By Allies

TRUCE TERMS AGREED UPON

Washington, Nov. 6.—Germany can have peace on the terms and principles enunciated by President Wilson, but it must pay an enormous indemnity for the wanton destruction wrought by its forces on land, on sea and in the air."

The German government is so informed in a note from Secretary Lansing now on its way to Berlin, and which also announces that Marshal Foch has been authorized by the Governments of the United States and the Allies "to receive properly accredited representatives of the German Government and to communicate to them the terms of the armistice" under which hostilities can be brought to an end.

Secretary Lansing's note quotes a "memorandum of observations" by the Allied Governments on the President's correspondence with the German authorities, in which those Governments "declare their willingness to make peace with the Government of Germany" in accord with the President's programme, subject to these qualifications:

Reservation to themselves of complete freedom of action in the peace conference on the question of the freedom of the seas, and—

The specific understanding that by restoration of invaded territories is meant that "compensation will be made by Germany for all damage done to the civilian populations of the Allies and their property by the aggression of Germany by land, by sea and from the air."

The President, Germany is informed, concurs in this last stipulation, which means payment by Germany for cities, towns and countrysides laid waste or damaged; for ships sunk by submarines and raiders and of indemnities to the families and dependents of civilians killed or carried off in violation of the recognized rules of warfare.

Terms of the armistice may not be made public until their acceptance or rejection by Germany, but it can be stated authoritatively that they are no less drastic than those imposed upon Austria, which have been interpreted by military men here, both Allied and American, as nothing short of abject surrender."

Germany's spokesmen already have acquiesced in the terms and fully.

principles as laid down by President Wilson. By accepting the armistice they agree in advance to the qualifications made by the Allies, and consequently much of the real work of the peace conference will have been completed in advance. There will remain the application of the President's programme and decision as to the freedom of the seas, but the terms of the armistice will leave no room for doubt of the ability of the Allied and American Governments to impose their terms:

While awaiting the approach of the German emissaries Marshal Foch, military men here believe, has opened the decisive battle of the war. His immediate objective is the rout or destruction of the German armies holding a stretch of more than 200 miles of battle-line in the very center of the front of France. It is from this menace that the Germans are seeking to escape in the great retreat reported last night from London.

ABOUT CROUP.

If your children are subject to croup, or if you have reason to fear their being attacked by that disease, you should procure a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and study the directions for use, so that in case of an attack you will know exactly what course to pursue. This is a favorite and very successful remedy for croup, and it is important that you observe the directions carefully.

Germany's spokesmen already have acquiesced in the terms and fully.

Germany's Surrender Expected

The German delegation charged to conclude an armistice and to open negotiations have arrived at the Allied front. Inasmuch as Germany's surrender must come before many weeks, the good news of an unconditional surrender is momentarily expected.

Writes From Oklahoma

Cushing, Okla., Nov. 3, 1918.

Mr. E. S. Albright,
Mt. Vernon, Ky.

Dear Edgar:

As I do not have anything to do this beautiful Sunday morning, will write you. If you have space in the Signal you may publish it if you care to do so, that our many friends there may know how we are.

We arrived safely on our journey on the eleventh day after starting. We had no trouble to amount to anything except the rain on Monday night. We were about 35 or 40 miles out of Kansas City at the time. Our tent blew down during the rain. We were some distance from any house, so it was up to us to hustle to the car the best way we could. And to make bad matters worse, we had played the part of the foolish Virgin, had no oil in our lamp, but we got there just the same. The next thing the dust had turned to mud and believe me the Kansas mud is sure slick. We made very poor time the next two days in fact the remainder of the trip. We traveled thru some fine country and also thru some very poor country, with the exception of Indiana. Corn crops generally, are poor and not anything extra thru Indiana. Wheat seems to be generally good, great preparation being made for wheat this year. I saw plenty of corn that had completely burnt up; not more than two or three feet high. This is a fine looking country; not so much right thru this section, the land don't look very productive around here but a few miles out on the river, it is good, but old Kentucky as a whole, is as good as any. Cushing is a town of eight or nine thousand population, something like a mile or two square. Streets laid off in city style, East, West, North and South. Some very fine houses and some the reverse. Everything is heated by natural gas; have both electric and gas lights. Five or six big refineries just out of town but no wells very close. Each refinery represents an outlay of thousands of dollars. I am at present working for the Consumers Refining Co., as a laborer at 45 cts per hour eight hours per day. Carpenter work is dull here on account of Government restrictions on building material. I haven't fully decided yet as to whether I will stay here or not. Work is a little slack here to what it has been but it is that way every where only on Government work. I am going out this evening to look about a farm. If I can rent one to suit me probably may farm next year. We have had considerable rain since I came here; weather warm, had a light frost Friday morning. The Spanish Influenza has been raging here since we came. I don't know the number of deaths, but a number of them. We have all escaped so far. It seems to be under control.

I regret very much to hear of the sickness and deaths in Mt. Vernon and Rockcastle. Makes me feel like I would like to be back and see them all, altho I am not one bit homesick, don't know how soon I will be. I have written all I know and no doubt more than you care to bother with. DEFEATED NATIONS TO BE SUPPLIED FOOD BY U. S.

Washington, Nov. 5.—The Allied and American Governments are to co-operate with Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey in furnishing food and supplies for the suffering civilian populations of those countries. This decision was reached by the Versailles conference yesterday. President Wilson was advised to-day by Col. E. M. House.

"At the conclusion of the meeting of the Supreme War Council yesterday," said Col. House's message. "I proposed a resolution in the following sense and the same was adopted: 'The Supreme War Council in session at Versailles desires to co-operate with Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria in the making available as far as possible of food and other supplies necessary for the lives of the civilian population of those countries."

GREATLY BENEFITED BY CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS

"I am thankful for the good I have received by using Chamberlain's Tablets. About two years ago when I began taking them I was suffering a great deal from distress after eating, and from headache and a tired, languid feeling due to indigestion and a torpid liver. Chamberlain's Tablets corrected these disorders in a short time, and since taking two bottles of them my health has been good," writes Mrs. M. P. Harwood, Auburn, N. Y.

QUICK ACTION LIKELY.

Now that the Berlin delegation "to conclude an armistice" with Marshal Foch was admitted to the presence of the Great Captain at day break today, it is likely that we shall hear vastly important tidings within a short time. The mind of the public is very definitely made up as to what action the delegation will take when the Generalissimo has stated his views upon a cessation of hostilities. The people are in possession of a clear notion of what will be demanded and they are willing to whisper their belief as to the outcome in quiet corners, although they are a trifle too conservative to be shouting their opinions from the house-tops just yet. Washington is inclined to question the authority with which the German delegation is clothed. This is merely an academic point, however, as we see it, since Marshal Foch's terms will call for definite performance; and if the German armies perform according to the demand of the Generalissimo, then there is nothing more to be asked; and no man will care upon whose authority the performance is completed, or whether the German armies have any authority for surrendering their arms, munitions, transportation facilities; and marching back to their frontier virtually naked.

Washington goes on to remark that Marshal Foch has terms that may seem harsh to the German, but which will admit of no argument. They must be accepted or rejected; and meanwhile it is taken for granted that the Field Marshal will maintain his pressure upon the beaten foe. It is most unlikely that any other thought is in his mind. In fact, the procedure appears so obvious that it is hardly worthy of mention. We have seen with what force Gen. Diaz kept after his adversaries even after the armistice has been agreed upon between Austria and Italy. There is no question that while the armistice is still under consideration between Marshal Foch and the German military command, the Hun will receive daily new object lessons in the beauty and desirability of peace.

It is natural, moreover, that Marshal Foch should demand a quick acceptance or rejection of his armistice terms. Since there is no ground for argument over the matter, the Generalissimo has every reason to be unwilling to have the minds of his men disturbed by the thought that talk is going on behind them. Besides, the situation is too clean-cut to admit of what is known as parley. The terms are ready; and in fact, it is almost unanimously believed that the Germans are equally ready. A reply doubtless will be forthcoming very shortly.—Louisville Times.

GOV MC CREAMY'S LAST WILL

The will of the late Governor James B. McCreary was read and offered for probate by Atty. John Noland, in Judge Price's county court Monday.

The will covered four pages of legal cap paper and was written by Gov. McCreary and was attested by Mr. R. E. Turley, cashier of the State Bank & Trust Co., and Col. N. B. Deatherage his old Confederate companion and friend. Both men were present and gave their testimony. Mr. Robert McCreary, of Chicago, his only child, was also present. He was named executor of the estate, which consists of considerable property, including much real estate, in this city, bank stock, a plantation in Florida money in bank, government bonds, etc. Gov. McCreary willed to his son the Florida plantation, his late residence in Richmond, a brick residence adjoining the postoffice, and much other valuable property and money. He left to his grandson, Lieut. Robert McCreary now with the American forces in France, and granddaughter, Mrs. Harriet Gay, of Fayette county, real estate in Richmond, and also considerable money and personal property. To his granddaughter he willed two handsome diamond rings, worn by his wife during her lifetime, and to his grandson, a handsome gold watch, a family heirloom. He devised to Daniel O'Sullivan, of Louisville, $15 for preparing his biography and $600 for the printing and publishing of same, together with some speeches, messages, etc., while Governor. He also devised that two oil portraits himself, one to be presented in the Richmond courthouse gallery, and the other to be presented to the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School. These portraits were solicited by the Judge and Bar, and by President T. J. Coates, for the Normal School. Governor McCreary thanked God for health at the time he wrote his will and the many other blessings he had enjoyed at the conclusion.—Richmond Register.

TUESDAY'S RESULT.

Smith Democrat elected Governor of New York.

California elects a Republican governor.

Gov. Stanley was elected to the U. S. Senate by about 7000 majority.

Early last night, a recapitulation of the results of Tuesday's election indicated that control of the senate will depend upon the results of the races in Michigan, Idaho and New Mexico. The Republicans are considered certain of forty-seven Senators and the Democrats of forty-six. Indications are that the Republicans will control the House. The figures early last night were: Republicans 23; Democrats 19; Socialists 1; doubtful 5. Howard S. Cummings, acting chairman of the Democratic National Committee, claimed that the Democrats would control the Senate and would organize the House.

LIVINGSTON

Flu! Flu! Flu! Yes, we have had the Flu, but we are up again and at our post. Will try to give some of the news of our little town but will not attempt to try to tell who has had that terrible disease called the Flu, as over half of the town has had a light or severe attack. We have had several deaths from the disease and near the town and all is not over yet. Near town on Gauley branch there has been two deaths today, a small child of one of the Milburns, and a small child of Lee Waggoner. The situation is gradually getting better and it is to be hoped the disease will soon be blotted out.

Drs. Webb and Amy have been going night and day and doing all in their power to relieve the suffering.—Mrs. C. H. We believe the world is growing better, especially in this respect.—The remedy that Dr. Robins, of Brodhead, the patent medicine man, prescribed for us for the Flu, may be all right, but we wish to inform the Dr. that there is but two living things on earth that can stand his treatment and they are a negro and a mule. Well, after twelve days of torture with the Flu we are up again, but not feeling as we once felt. We are here to shoot the harpoon into our friend when he soars away on the wings of imagination and visits some far off fairy land. "After having been a constant sufferer from catarrh for more than twenty years and after trying every known remedy, I became disheartened, and having lost all hope, I very reluctantly began two years ago to use Peruna. WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY NORTHWEST OF VERDUN. Nov. 4.—Buzancy, the largest of the towns delivered by the Americans, reflects the spirit of the vindictiveness displayed by the Germans when they are forced to abandon a region they have held for any considerable time. The town had been almost wholly Germanized. French civilians had disappeared a long time ago and the signs over the shops were all in German. On the streets and avenues such names as Wilhelmstrasse had been substituted for those in French.

There was evidence that the Germans had carried on the usual activities in the municipality, but with complete contempt for previous conditions and with a desire to wipe out any suggestion as to those who had formerly lived there. Their departure, however, was marked as in few other cases by a desire to leave desolation behind them. From end to end the streets of the town and the houses reek with the stench of filth wilfully distributed. The place was a scene of looting, wanton destruction and enfoulement, but whether the work was carried out by order is not known.

All such things as were portable are gone from the town. Heavy furniture, including mahogany tables, wardrobes and pianos, were broken to bits and left in the houses. Interior decorations were irreparably mutilated.

It was not simply a garrison community the Germans established in Buzancy, although the town recently was army headquarters. One of the houses bore an inscription indicating it was used as a rest house or club house for women. In a store were found magazines, many of them devoted to fashions. Today, forty eight hours in occupation, Buzancy is the center of an American troop movement. The short streets are jammed with traffic of war and, from the hill overlooking it and the hills beyond are to be seen lines of truck trains, marching infantry and moving artillery. From the south unending supply trains approach the city along distant routes in order to pass through Buzancy, from there to be diverted along the newly repaired roads to positions nearer the front.

No Mystery in Meat

Some things are so simple that they have to be explained again and again. When things are obvious, people keep looking for mysteries behind them.

So it is with the packing business. The mere size of Swift & Company confuses many. Because their imaginations are not geared up to scale, they believe there must be magic in it somewhere—some weird power.

Swift & Company is just like any other manufacturing business run by human beings like yourself; it takes in raw material on the one hand and turns out a finished product on the other.

Swift & Company keeps down the "spread," or the expense absorbed between raw and finished material, to as low a figure as possible. (If it didn't it would be put out of business by others who do.)

How much Swift & Company pays for the raw material, and how much it gets for the finished product, depends upon conditions which Swift & Company does not control.

It depends entirely upon how much people want the finished product, and how much raw material there is available to make it from.

The profits of Swift & Company amount to less than one cent per pound on all meats and by-products—less than one-fourth of a cent on beef.

IN MEMORY.

In loving memory of our dear darling Elizabeth which the death angel claimed as a victim.
She was 2 years and 4 months of age. Short services were held at the home by Rev. Young after which she was laid to rest in the Livesay grave yard near the home. Elizabeth was a precious one in our home playing and plucking the flowers, but her dear Master called for her, and she is now resting in the arms of Jesus, where no sin nor sorrow can ever enter. We cannot call her back but have the assurance of meeting her in the great beyond where we will never have to part no more. We wish to thank our friends for their loving kindness during the last hours of her life.

DEATHS.

The death toll from Influenza is still heavy in the rural districts of the county. Deaths reported since last week.

Mat Bowles, living on the Fast side of the county lost three children; John Bowles lost his wife and grown daughter, and Tom Bowles Jr., lost a 7 year old son. The three families live in the same neighborhood; the six deaths occurred Wednesday and Wednesday night and the six burials took place yesterday at the same graveyard.

A child of Mr. and Mrs. Dock
Clifford died Wednesday night.
This is the second child which they have lost.

Mr. H. J. Mullins, age 74, a life long and highly respected citizen of Rockcastle county and Civil War veteran died at 8 o'clock this morning at the home of his son, Frank Mullins, of Bright's dis-had been on the decline but the last few weeks, it has been a rapid give away. He leaves five sons, Will, Frank and Chris, of Mt. Vernon, Edgar and Grant are with the colors and one daughter, Mrs. U. G. Baker. He will be laid to rest beside his wife who preceded him to the grave less than a year ago, at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon in Elmwood cemetery.

Stephen Proctor is reported to be very sick with influenza.
Miss Julia Davis is very sick with influenza.

It is no trouble to spot "flues"
they all show it.

Judge Cam Mullins requests us to say that as the Flu is about over, that the bringing of whiskey into the county must stop. No more whiskey is needed for Flu medicine and the Sheriff, Jailer and Marshal have been instructed to arrest all parties caught bringing in whiskey. Many gallons have been brought here in the last month, which was not needed or even intended for flu patients. Some took advantage of the situation but the lid is going on tight as ever, and this warning should be heeded before it is too late.

Austria Surrenders

Washington, Nov. 4.—Three hundred thousand Austrian soldiers and not less than 5,000 guns had been captured by the victorious Italian armies before the armistice went into effect at 3 o'clock this afternoon, said an official dispatch to day from Rome. This included all captured since the offensive began October 4.

The soldiers of the once powerful Austrian army, the dispatch said, continued to flee in disorder. Since the offensive started sixty-three Austro-Hungarian divisions were put out of combat by fifty-one Italian divisions, three British and two French divisions, with Czecho-Slovak units and an American regiment.

"The war against Austria Hungary, which was commanded of his majesty, the King of Italy, with an army inferior in number and with still inferior means since the 4th of May, 1915, has come to an end," said the dispatch. "With unshakable faith and indomitable valor the Italian army waged a continuous and hard war for a period of forty one months and won the stupendous battle begun the 4th of October, and in which were engaged in their entirety all the resources of the enemy."

"So far the enemy has left in our hands 300,000 prisoners and not less than 5,000 guns. The soldiers of what used to be one of the most powerful armies in the world are now fleeing in disorder and without hope from the valleys which they had invaded with truculent confidence."

"On October 31, after having overcome on strongly fortified positions the resistance of powerful enemy rearguards, our troops consisting of fifty-one Italian divisions, three British and two French divisions, with Czecho-Slovak units and an American regiment, put out of combat sixty-three Austro Hungarian divisions.

"The rapid and most daring advance of the 9th Army Corps to the city of Trento, precluding the retreat of the defeated enemy troops, pressed from the west by the 7th Army Corps and from the east by the 1st, 6th and 4th Army Corps, determined yesterday the complete crumbling of the Austrian front."

"From the River Brenta to the sea the irresistible impetus of the 12th, 10th and 8th Army Corps pressed inexorably the enemy retreating across the plain. The Duke of Aosta is advancing rapidly at the head of his invincible Third Army, anxious to return to the old position which he had once heroically conquered."

"The Austro-Hungarian army is destroyed. It has suffered heavy losses in the tenacious resistance during the first days of the offensive, and in the pursuit it lost an enormous quantity of material and artillery."

"In Albania our advance guard have occupied Scutari."

Y. W. C. A.	8.80%
National Catholic War Council (including Knights of Columbus)	17.00%
War Camp Community Service	8.80%
Jewish Welfare Board	2.05%
American Library Association	2.05%

Any surplus will be divided pro rata.

MASS MEETINGS IN CITIES AND TOWNS

Kentuckians Everywhere Will Listen to Speakers—Business Men's Clubs to Hear of War's Welfare Work.

On Friday, November 8, there will be a mass meeting in each of the larger cities and towns in Kentucky in furtherance of the interest in the United War Work Campaign.

These mass meetings will be addressed by prominent speakers who will set forth the activities of the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the National Catholic War Council, the Jewish Welfare Board, the War Camp Community Service, the American Library Association and the Salvation Army, the seven organizations which are providing physical, mental and moral help to our soldiers overseas and in the camps in this country as well as doing a mighty work in providing needed comforts for the several millions of women and girl munition workers both in the United States and in France.

During the week of November 8 to 10 there will also be a series of business men's conferences held under the auspices of the Commercial, Rotary, and Kiwanis Clubs of every city of 5,000 or more inhabitants in the state. These conferences will be addressed by prominent and successful business men who have acquainted themselves thoroughly with the work of the seven organizations and who appreciate the imperative necessity for continuing and increasing the activities.

Many of the men who will address the meetings are fathers or close relatives of boys who are serving in France and who have learned directly through letters from the boys at the front, of the invaluable help all the seven organizations are rendering to soldiers every day.

PARADES IN STATE FEATURE CAMPAIGN

United War Work Drive in Kentucky Will Be Splendidly Advertised on Saturday, November 9.

Parade Day in Kentucky will be Saturday, November 9, when fifty or more cities and towns in the state will hold patriotic parades in honor of the United War Work Campaign which starts November 11 and continues through the 18th.

Elaborate plans are being made in many of the towns to put the parade on in a manner befitting the importance of the seven organizations, the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the National Catholic War Council, the Jewish Welfare Board, the War Camp Community Service, the American Library Association and the Salvation Army, and the great welfare work they stand for.

Every city and town in the state will be decorated with the posters and banners of each of the seven agencies and countless banners, pennants and flags will be carried by the parades.

In many of the towns plans are under way to have the United War Work Campaign parade held at night and some brilliant programs have been mapped out to make the event a very spectacular event.

From the River Brenta to the sea the irresistible impetus of the 12th, 10th and 8th Army Corps pressed inexorably the enemy retreating across the plain. The Duke of Aosta is advancing rapidly at the head of his invincible Third Army, anxious to return to the old position which he had once heroically conquered.

"PERSHING DAY" ON COUNTY COURT DAY

Speakers Will Talk of United War Work Campaign Drive in Rural Sections of Kentucky.

County Court Day in 20 counties in Kentucky falls on Monday, November 11, the first day of the United War Work Campaign drive, the day which will be called "Pershing Day," because the great American general has so heartily endorsed each and all of the seven organizations united in the campaign—the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the National Catholic War Council, the Jewish Welfare Board, the War Camp Community Service, the American Library Association and the Salvation Army.

County Court Day, even in times of peace, is an occasion for much activity in the gathering together of the farmers of the district, but on "Pershing Day," with the word of the lips of everybody, great zest an patriotism will be added to the usual buzz and hum of Court Day by hundreds of speakers who will lift the voices in the interest of the United War Work Campaign while the rare residents are gathered together around the county court houses or in other sections of the towns.

It is a mighty opportunity to bring the importance of the work of the seven agencies before the farmers, to pass the endorsement of Gen. Pershing right along, and to bring home the imperative necessity for not only continuing the war welfare work, but of extending the scope of the activities of the seven organizations.

Speakers will be supplied for each of the thirty counties which hold court on "Pershing Day," no less than six speakers being assigned to each town.

No farmer who comes to town to trade will escape hearing the wonderful story of the good being wrought by the war work agencies and so enthused that he will carry the word back to his own fire-side to share it with his family.

It is a marvelous story, growing in greatness all the time, and it bears the stamp of the white seal of truth and high ideals, splendidly carried out in the United States and Overseas.

"All Faiths Day" will be observed in Kentucky Sunday, November 10, when Protestant and Catholic, Jew and Gentile will join in setting forth the aims and ideals of the United War Work Campaign, the week of November 11 to 18.

The Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the National Catholic War Council, the Jewish Welfare Board, the War Camp Community Service, the American Library Association and the Salvation Army, have at the request of President Wilson, united for one great drive. The appeal of these seven organizations is not to one element alone for they collectively represent all religious creeds and faiths united in a mighty work for the welfare of our soldiers at home and overseas.

There is no narrow dividing line in the great work, no religious differences but all are bound together in one sublime faith, one great belief that in unity there is strength and in unity there is also the real spirit of Christianity.

Just what each of the seven organizations is doing for the morale not only of the soldiers, but the several millions of women and girls who are working in munition plants in this country and in France and for other women workers in the industrial centers, will be set forth.

Ministers, priests, pastors, prelates, rabbis and other religious leaders of every sect and denomination will be represented on the platform on that day. The "Victory Boys" and "Victory Girls" will be reached through the Sunday Schools.

On the afternoon of the same day, Sunday, November 10, a rally will be held in every precinct in Kentucky at which the activities of the seven great organizations of the United War Work Campaign will be set forth by speakers who are qualified to tell the story of the work.

At night on the same day United War Work Campaign rallies will be held in every county in the state with two speakers at each rally who will tell of the far-reaching effect of the work of the seven agencies.

These county rallies will be held in each county seat and in counties where there are towns of good size a rally will be held in each town.

Every man, woman and child in Kentucky will be made familiar with the wonderful story of the work of the seven organizations on "All Faiths Day."

In camps and cantonments in the United States and overseas there are 812 libraries and 1,547 branches containing more than 3,600,000 books and 5,000,000 copies of periodicals. There are 230 additional libraries on the ships of our fighting fleets and merchant marine, and the number should be vastly increased. The American Library Association is one of the seven organizations in the United War Work Campaign, and its quota will be devoted to supplying our soldier boys and munition workers with books and periodicals. A great work
